

Health and Safety Policy

Orano Canada Inc. (Orano) is committed to providing a healthy and safe work environment for all of its employees and contractors, and to ensuring that all work is performed in a safe and responsible manner that meets regulatory and company standards.

To meet this commitment, Orano shall:

- foster a safety culture throughout the organization;
- fulfill its compliance obligations;
- identify and address workplace risks and hazards;
- prevent injury and protect the physical and mental health of employees and contractors;
- maintaining radiation doses to its employees and contractors, As Low As Reasonably Achievable (ALARA), social and economic factors considered;
- develop internal objectives and targets to achieve continual improvement in health and safety performance;
- support all employees and contractors in fulfilling their health and safety responsibilities;
- develop, implement, maintain and test emergency procedures; and
- investigate reported incidents that result or could result in employee illness or injury and apply lessons learned.

Vincent Martin
President and Chief Executive Officer